

This fortnight our core book is 'Errol's Garden'

Join in with our core song with actions:

This Is The Way We Plant The Seeds

This is the way we plant the seeds,
Plant the seeds, plant the seeds.
This is the way we plant the seeds on a sunny afternoon.

This is the way we water the seeds.....

This is the way the sun shines down.....

This is the way we watch and wait.....

This is the way we see them grow.....

We are learning the following poem:

A Little Seed

A little seed for me to sow,
A little soil for it to grow,
A little hole, a little pat,
A little wish, and that is that.
A little sun, a little shower,
A little wait, and then a flower.

You can help your child by reading with your child every day, singing our core song together, and reciting and acting out the poem.

Makaton

We are learning these Makaton signs:

book

read

help

kind

Garden Plan

In 'Errol's Garden', the neighbours plan what they will grow in their rooftop garden. We are planning what vegetables we will grow in our garden this year. What vegetables do you like to eat? What vegetables would you like to grow? How do vegetables grow?

Why not talk about the different vegetables you have at mealtimes. Maybe you could draw a plan for the garden, showing where all the different vegetables should be planted.

Reading Together

We love reading. It is good to read books together in a group with friends or snuggled up with someone on the sofa or just quietly by ourselves. You can read almost anywhere - on the bus, whilst eating breakfast, in the bath... Books don't need batteries and they are small and fit in your bag. Books can go wherever you go. As we celebrate World Book Day, we want to encourage you to read and share story and information books from home, the library and nursery.

Being Kind And Helpful

In the story of 'Errol's Garden', the neighbours all come together to help create the garden, each bringing their own skills and ideas. We can help other people and show kindness in many different ways.

What could you do to help someone this week? How can you show kindness to other people?